

"In the public interest," equals greater diversity of media ownership, not less. I am greatly expecting the Commission to serve the public interest by expanding, not contracting, the spectrum of media ownership.

The fact that the proposed ownership changes will increase economic rewards to media ownership is NOT justification for taking the proposed action.

Thank you for your service.